VERY FEW WORDS FROM DEACON BUDDY

A certain vigilance is required if we're to be counted among the friends of Jesus. Not the kind of paranoia that comes from imagining enemies behind every tree. But when the hour of crisis comes, as it always does, we have to be prepared. The time for reciting creeds, learning lessons, practicing virtues, and performing rituals will be past. When the hour comes, it is time to act. The creeds, lessons, virtues, and rituals are meant to fortify us for the critical hour. They aren't ends in themselves. We aren't meant to warehouse our religious training and practices like shares in stock that reap eternal rewards. Religious practices are like copybooks of children who rehearse the alphabet for future and more creative uses. Watch for the hour when all we've learned and all we believe summons us to take the actions we were born for. "Watch and pray that you may not undergo the test" (Mark 14:38).

Zoom-ers: There is a worship aid attached so that you may participate fully. If you are unable to join us in person, as you prepare your sacred space at home, you may want to “set your table” with a beautiful purple cloth, bring a cross, a candle, bread and wine/juice.

For those who are so moved, we invite you to pray the prayer of Spiritual Communion:

Oh my Jesus, I turn toward the holy tabernacle in my heart where You live and love me. I love you. Come and visit me with Your grace. Spiritually come more fully into my heart. Purify me. Sanctify me. Make me more like You. May I receive You in your fullness and reflect You in the world. Amen
