VERY FEW WORDS FROM DEACON BUDDY

The week after Easter was designated by Pope John Paul II as Divine Mercy Sunday. It was on this Sunday (in 2000) that the Pope canonized St. Faustina Kowalski, the apostle of Divine Mercy, the first saint of the new millennium. The private revelations given to this humble young Polish nun have mesmerized countless numbers of Catholics and even other Christians toward the end of the twentieth century. The message of Divine Mercy is most consoling in the difficult

Happy Easter!
In this week's gospel, the Risen Jesus
enters a locked room, filled with sadness and fear, offering peace and the breath of new life in the Holy Spirit. The Risen
Jesus is in our midst today and offers us peace
and presence as we gather to celebrate. What astounding joy

times in which we live. The conversation of Christ, the Divine Mercy, with the lost soul in the revelations of St. Faustina has given great hope to those whose relatives and friends left this life apparently unprepared. St. Faustina wrote that Christ had revealed to her that He calls all souls at the moment of death and offers them the grace of conversion. They are free, of course, to reject it or receive it. This revelation, which may seem startling, is completely consistent with the salvation of the good thief on the cross, a man who apparently had not led a good life in any way. It also reminds us of Christ's prayer on the Cross, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do" (Luke 23:34). FR. BENEDICT J. GROESCHEL--THE KING, CRUCIFIED AND RISEN

Centering Prayer/Meditation And Labyrinth

Sunday April 7th at 7:00 AM. We'll meet in the sanctuary and dress for walking the labyrinth, weather permitting. All are welcome. Contact Mother Alice for more info.

PREPARATION FOR LITURGY.

In person: We are grateful to be together and enjoying gathering in person. As you know, masks are optional. We have colored bracelets that can indicate your comfort level with hugs – green, yellow, and red.

Zoom-ers: There is a worship aid attached so that you may participate fully. If you are unable to join us in person, as you prepare your sacred space at home, you may want to "set your table" with a beautiful whitecloth, bring a cross, a candle, bread and wine/juice.

For those who are so moved, we invite you to pray the prayer of Spiritual Communion:

Oh my Jesus, I turn toward the holy tabernacle in my heart where You live and love me. I love you. Come and visit me with Your grace. Spiritually come more fully into my heart. Purify me. Sanctify me. Make me more like You. May I receive You in your fullness and reflect You in the world. Amen

You are welcome to email the link below to friends and family, and please refrain from posting it on social media for security. It remains the same for every liturgy.
