1st Rocky Mountain Regional Synod Thoughts and Highlights

The Colorado Regional Synod, for me, was a day to celebrate the coming together of God's people as One within God's Love for each of us, whether we were Lay, Priests or Bishops. We sat, listened and prayed together as One. We met each other at tables to begin the day that we were assigned to and then had the Liturgy of the Word part of the Mass, with Bishop Mother Kae sharing how the Spirit is Alive within each of us. The day continued with sitting at six different tables and to pick two of the tables that most interested me. I sat with the Liturgy table and then the Ecumenism table. It was suggested at that discussion to write a new Liturgy from the Old Catholic Liturgy, the pro's and con's to that. At the Ecumenism table, it was basically hearing from each other on being open and listening to other faith beliefs and realizing at the core, that we all are one. The food provided was delicious. In the afternoon, we heard from the main speaker, George von Stamwitz on the charisms of the ECC, the blessing of the oils, and the Eucharistic celebration shared the blessing, that within the ECC we all are One with each other and One within God's Love! A simply wonderful day!
